

Journal of TISSUE VIABILITY

CONTENTS

Editorial	4
<hr/>
Scar evaluation and management: recommendations	6
This paper provides a summary of scar evaluation and outlines evidence-based recommendations on their management, based on a qualitative overview of published work. Luc Téot
<hr/>
Gene delivery of platelet-derived growth factor (PDGF) for wound healing therapy	16
This paper describes the developments in modifying cells to express therapeutic proteins by transfer of genetic material, and the benefits of such an approach to the production of PDGF, one of the first cytokines released in response to injury. Nicola Petrie, Jan Vranckx, Daniela Hoeller, Feng Yao, Elof Eriksson
<hr/>
Abstracts from the Cochrane Wounds Group	22
<hr/>
The NATVNS Scotland 2005 annual general meeting	23
A report of the annual General Meeting of the National Association of Tissue Viability Nurse Specialists (Scotland), which took place in May 2005 Ann Macfarlane
<hr/>
Product news	24
<hr/>
Tissue Viability Society business	26
<hr/>
A novel approach for lower limb ulcers – Kerraboot	28
This case study presents the use of a novel wound management product used to treat pressure ulcers on a diabetic patient's foot. Suzanne Butterly, Ian Wilson
<hr/>	